

Dear Parents/ Carers,

It's hard to believe we are now half way through the academic year! As always, we can expect a very busy second half of the year, with all sorts of events and activities planned. Please keep a close eye on the diary dates to make sure you don't miss anything. Updates will be sent via newsletters and text messages.

World Book Day – Thank you to everyone for your support on World Book Day – the children (and staff!) looked fantastic, and had a great time enjoying all of the stories. Kind donations from the raffle, coffee afternoon and non-uniform day will be presented to Bluebell Wood to support a new sensory room in memory of Ibraheem Nadeem, a former pupil at Badsley Primary.

NEW School Motto!

As you are aware since the start of the new school year, we have been working hard on the shared drive for 'high expectations' of learning and behaviour. As a result of this, the school council worked made a decision to create a new school motto for our school.

Growing Together; Aiming High

At Badsley, we are proud to work together with parents, families and the community to drive a shared vision for our children and school. Please take a minute to ask your child about our new motto and what it means to them and the school.

Website

Our website continues to be regularly updated and is a place where you can find up to date information about our school. Please take a few minutes to have a look. Any feedback would be greatly received.

Twitter

It is great to see the continued amount of Twitter activity, with lots of parents tweeting photos and positive messages about events they have been involved with, in and out of school. It's been absolutely fantastic to see, so thank you for sharing! We also use Twitter to update parents about reminders for events, attendance celebrations about learning taking place around our school. Give us a follow! @badsleyprimary

Thank you for your continued support.

Finally, as always I would like to thank you once for your continued support; it is very much appreciated.

Mr. M Windle
