

Herbivores, omnivores and carnivores definition answers.

Herbivore:

Herbivores are animals that have a diet made up entirely of plants

Omnivore:

Omnivores are animals that have a varied diet made up of plants and meat.

Carnivore:

Carnivores are animals that have a diet that is made up entirely of meat. They eat other animals and they tend to be the apex predator in the wild!