Writing

It is important that the children keep practising their writing. Here are a few ideas :

-Read this PowerPoint about Birds found in the garden.

- Write a non-chronological report about the different birds found in a garden. Use headings the link to structure your writing.
- Choose a character from a book and write a new adventure for them. Where could they go? Who will they meet? What could happen to them?
- Write a message on your class blog on Purple Mash. Access Purple Mash by logging on. Click on the 'Green Sharing world'. Click 'Shared blogs' and then you will see the class blog page. Click on it and then add your own message on here. Click on the green add symbol at the top of the page to add your own message.

Remember to include:

- Expanded noun phrases to describe the birds
- Correct spelling and punctuation.
- Different conjunctions such as- but, when, if, because, so, or

Spellings we would like you to practise:

Blue- The sea is shimmering blue.

Blew- The wind blew over the trees.

How many words can you think of with the gn & kn sound at the beginning? Can you make a chart?

gn	kn
gnaw	Knee
gnat	knew
