

Read the e-book 'We are all different' Each child is different. They have different likes, skin colour, hair, hobbies. They are all friends. Choose an activity from the box to complete using the book for support. You can complete more than one. Send your learning to your year group email.	How are you different? Look at the ideas in the book. What makes you unique? What should we celebrate about you? Create your own book about you and how amazing you are.	Why it is important to be different? Even though each child is different they are all still friends. Write a speech to present in class about why it is important that we have differences to our friends and we are not all the same!
Watch Newsround There is a lot in the news about people being treated differently due to the colour of their skin. Watch Newsround CBBC to find out what is happening.	Biography Research the life of a famous black person. This could be a celebrity or sports star you admire, Rhianna, Serena Williams, Raheem Sterling or someone who created a better world such as Nelson Mandela, Ruby Bridges. Can you write a report about their life?	Alma Thomas Find out about the art of Alma Thomas. She is an abstract artist. She used bright colours. Can you create your own piece of work inspired by her?